Greetings from your President Hampshire Breeders and Members,

As I write this letter, lambing season is in full swing and expectations are high. The decision of ram selection has been made months ago with many criteria considered for the impact that the sire has on half of the lamb crop. And for the ewes, the thoughts of which ones to keep based on lambing records, weaning weights and how the lambs grew out are all critical components to the success of the flock. Crosses are contemplated looking at genotypic and phenotypic traits, during breeding season records are kept all in anticipation of what the winter crop might be or not... Every season feels similar to me, trying new rams, holding on to those that have worked and the excitement of looking at ewes, with their pedigrees in my mind, keeping their daughters and having high expectations all the while.

So what expectations do we have for our association? What is our perception and what is the reality of the AHSA? What changes need to be made? How do we create a positive impact on as many Hampshire shepherds as possible? As you ask yourself these questions, if something comes to mind please contact someone on the board, or Jeff Ebert, as we would be happy to hear from you. The board is eager to hear new ideas and constructive criticism. We are continually evaluating the programs in place and are working to improve said programs as well as initiate new ones.

Currently, the board has some committees working on several new projects. One committee is working on improving promotional materials to be used at shows across the country. Another committee is working strictly with their focus on youth and youth opportunities. This has been one of the most significant additions to our association over the past several years, with a reinstated junior program, college scholarship opportunities, ambassadors and several other initiatives that our group is working on now. If you are a young person reading this, get involved! If you have guestions or want more information, call or email your director and I am sure that they will be happy to put you in touch with the right folks. There are several other committees focused on current Hampshire activities across the country and looking at ways to improve efficiency, guality and helping keep a high standard of ethics in place.

Finally, I am happy to report that the Jeff and his elite team have added the opportunity of working with a few more associations, as the word gets out that accuracy and efficiency from the office is impeccable. For the AHSA, in 2017 we had an increase in registrations and transfers, up to 7984 and 3826 respectfully. Also, office efficiency is good as we continue to see quick turnaround times on paperwork. I am so appreciative of the hard work that is exhibited from the entire Kansas team!

Take care and happy lambing,

Scott VanSickle

LAMBING TIME DR. ALISON CRANE

Alison grew up in Warrior, AL. She received her B.S. in Animal Science in 2012 from Berry College in Rome, GA. Following graduation, Alison began her M.S. in ruminant nutrition at the NDSU Hettinger Research Extension Center in Hettinger, ND, which was completed in 2014, and received her Ph.D. in reproductive physiology in March 2017 under the directions of Drs. Christopher Schauer, Reid Redden, and Kendall Swanson. Alison's research program focused on most aspects of sheep production and extension including nutrition, reproductive physiology, as well as wool and carcass character. Dr. Crane is the new Extension Sheep & Meat Goat Specialist at Kansas State University and will have a regular column in the Hampshire Heartbeat with timely advice for Hampshire breeders and the sheep industry.

Depending on your operation, your lambing season could be completed, just starting, or coming soon, but no matter the exact time you lamb, it is no doubt one of the most exciting times of the year for sheep producers across the country. If you have purebred sheep, you might be waiting to see which ewes and rams produce your best stock for show or seed stock, while commercial producers, might be anxious to see which ewes produce your fastest growing, most efficient lambs. This time of year is definitely exciting for all sheep producers, as well as incredibly busy, and undoubtedly stressful. Possible stressors could include developing better late gestation and early lactation rations, determining your vaccination and deworming schedule or protocol for the upcoming lamb crop, or maybe it's identifying those trouble ewes in your flock that have bad teats, poor milk production, or regularly occurring dystocia issues. Hopefully, the information below can aid in relieving a few of those stressors you may encounter this lambing season.

Many producers wonder if they could be feeding their ewes better rations in late gestation/early lactation. The most important thing to remember is that one of the worst things you can do is overfeed your ewes throughout pregnancy. Overfeeding can cause many issues, like pregnancy toxemia and dystocia, but it can also make your operation less profitable. Body condition scoring (BCS) is a very reliable measure of ewe's general health and needs. Ewe's should be at a BCS 2.5 to 3 at late gestation. Requirements for ewes with multiple lambs are higher than those ewes with singleton pregnancies, and ewes should be fed accordingly. In early lactation, the target BCS for ewes should be between a 3 to 3.5. When ewes are carrying or nursing multiple lambs, a 0.5 increase in BCS is perfectly acceptable. In general, a 10-12% change in BW is needed to change BCS by one unit. When it comes to vaccinating ewes, the most effective time to vaccinate your ewe is 4 to 6 weeks prior to lambing. This timing allows for immunity to be passed to the lambs from the ewe. This is also convenient if you have wool sheep breeds and will already be shearing your ewes about a month prior to lambing. Some dewormers are also safe to use in this time period as well, but the labels should always be followed.

The most effective management tool we have as producers is record keeping; however, many producers take records and never use them. Ewes with bad udders or teats, or those that are poor mothers, should all be recorded during lambing time. With these records, you can make management decisions that will save you time and stress in the next lambing season, but also help you cull these traits from future generations of your flock. If you do not have an electronic identification system that can allow you to make notes on culling animals, I encourage you to develop a paint branding system that will allow you to sort animals easily for culling at the end of lambing. If you are a purebred producer, I also encourage you to enroll and submit data to the National Sheep Improvement Program to better utilize the data you are already recording. Similar to EPDs in cattle, estimated breeding values in sheep can help you make more efficient and informed decisions for your operation, and also bring more value to your seed stock animals. This allows your commercial flock customers to make more informed decisions about their purchasing decisions.

All in all, I encourage you all to continue to broaden the possibilities of your production systems and utilize the tools the industry continues to develop to hopefully, make your lives less stressful! Happy Lambing!

HAMPSHIRE HERITAGE AWARD Poe Hampshires Established 1945

In the early 20th century in the Midwest, farming was a common occupation. At the time, Poe Farms had about 80 acres of row crops along with beef, sheep, swine, dairy, and poultry- raising most of their own food while also earning a living. In 1945, ten-year-old Stanley E. Poe along with his father, Walter D. Poe traveled to nearby Lakewood Farms of Edinburgh, IN. Lakewood was a nationally known Hampshire breeder at the time and shepherds L.T. Dwyer & Chan Davis struck a deal with young Stan to purchase his first Hampshires to start his 4-H career. They took notice in the excitement and interest the young man displayed in the project. Walter & Stan purchased 10 bred ewes for a total of $1000 and Poe Hampshires was established.

When Stan joined 4-H one of the first lessons was how the commercial grade livestock he already owned would not be suitable for the show ring in order to achieve success. Growing up watching Lakewood Farms display championship genetics Stan took an interest in Hampshires under the guidance of L.T. Dwyer & Chan Davis.

Poe Hampshires, A Brief History...

Over the years there hasn't been much change in the management of the flock other than the growth. Multiple members of the family have been more or less involved in the operation given the stage of their own lives. Stan Sr. ultimately managed the flock from the early years through his siblings' 4-H careers in the 1950s-60s. With meticulous production practices and constant research, Poe Hampshires quickly garnered national success in the 1950s-60s. Kenny and Alberta Poe, Stan's younger siblings managed the flock and showed the sheep while Stan was in and out of college and the military. Stan maintained about 160 ewes with Hampshires, Columbias & Southdowns during the 4-H careers of Stan II, Keegan and Cameron Poe. All three boys earned state and national recognition with a very lucrative tenure in the show ring.

When Stan II returned from college in 1988 he assumed a much more managerial role and began farming full time as Stan Sr. was working off the farm. From 1988-1991 Poe Hampshires experienced much added growth with 300 western ewes and about 220 breed ewes and the facilitation of club lamb sales. In 1995, Kalen Poe, the youngest of the Poe Family began 4-H and even though having a very successful 4-H career there was a shift in the focus of the farm with the added interest from the club lamb business. Poe Hampshires remained relevant in the production and show success of registered seedstock. However, the goals were to maintain more moderate, muscular sheep to produce more marketable wethers. Resulting in Poe Hampshires being some of the first slick sheared Hampshires you would see in the show ring. The late 90s-early 2000s would serve as the turning point of the operation with major success producing the Supreme Champion Wether Sire at the Midwest Stud Ram Sale in 1999, Champion Ram at the Indiana State Fair with "Undertow", a slick-shorn ram in 2001, Premier Exhibitor at the National Hampshire Show with an entirely slick-shorn show string in 2002 and the Res. Grand Champion Market Lamb at the Oklahoma Youth Expo in 2004.

When Kalen was in high school he and Stan II began to form a partnership as Kalen grew older and took on more responsibilities on the farm. In 2003, Stan II and Kalen purchased the Charles Kirlin flock in its entirety and put ewe numbers to about 400. Poe Hampshires were also one of the initial flocks in the country to implement artificial insemination into their practices. During the 2000s, the flock developed into an innovative form of production technology and efficiency utilizing artificial insemination, semen processing, and embryo transfer to maximize their genetic potential as well as offering these services to outside clientele. These numbers remained while Kalen was in college and graduate school and in 2009 & 2011 the brothers brokered two other major purchases buying out Kevin Hoeing of Rushville, IN & Kent Langemeier of Mead, NE. These 220 additional ewes put the operation to over 600 head. Kalen's involvement increased through his college years developing many new business relationships across the country and in 2014 he returned home to the farm full-time.

HAMPSHIRE HERITAGE AWARD

Stan Poe II has been on the AHSA Board from 2003-2012 & served as President from 2009-2011. He was also one of the founding members of the All-American Junior Show.

Poe Hampshires currently maintains 550 head of registered Hampshires and black-faced crossbred ewes. The operation thrives on customer success and their business model is designed to directly reflect the demand for moderate, correctly structured, muscular sheep that are versatile breeders with productive longevity. The top 80% of the projected 750 head of lambs born each year are marketed to other seedstock producers and 4-H families through six online sales, live auctions and privately. Poe

Hamps fills multiple segments of the market offering show sheep and seedstock of all ages along with frozen and fresh chilled semen. The lower 20% are marketed through local commercial producers and meat suppliers.

Management practices are kept current maintaining innovative technology. All brood ewes between the ages of 1-5 years are artificially inseminated on site in the state-of-the-art breeding facility. They also facilitate AI space for approximately 30 individual clients ultimated on one in the state 30 individual clients ultimately breeding around 1000 head annually on the farm. The conception rates will average between 60-90% making the production scheme extremely efficient. AI groups are kept together with all progeny maintaining the same schedule for processing, vaccinations, and weaning. This also helps to facilitate the various markets they can achieve from across the country.

The farm utilizes their sheep as teaching tools whenever the opportunity arises given that each of the Poes was an active livestock judging team member. Poe Hamps have supplied classes at the Mid-America Classic in Hutchinson, KS, Houston Livestock Show, Indiana State 4-H/FFA Contest, and the North American Intercollegiate Livestock Judging Contest. Poe Hamps hosts tours for FFA groups during National FFA Convention held in Indianapolis, IN annually seeing over 800 students. Started in 2012, Poe Hamps is the first and only sheep operation in the country to host an official judging workout for high school and colligate judging teams traveling to NAILE. They have become a regular stop hosting more than 60 judging teams from across the country every year.

Introduce yourself & your family

I am Richard Krackow. I live on the farm my grandfather purchased in 1889. I just had a great nephew & his family build a house on the farm. I now have some chore help from his 4 and 6 year old daughters.

Give us a brief description of your Hampshire Flock

I bought my first Hampshire's in 1964 and built from there, starting with Hogg & Hubbard Stock. I've been fortunate to have 15 Nat'l Champs & reserved Champions at Louisville over the years, along with countless sale champions.

Why did you choose to include registered Hampshries in your sheep operation?

I graduated from WI Farm short course in 1964, where I was introduced to Hampshire's by Jim Elphich, & Dr. Art Pape. I showed at the Little International that year & was reserve champ showman with my Hamp ewe lamp. I was hooked!!

Featuring Tim & Sarah Heener Introduce yourself & your family

My name is Tim Fleener. My wife, Sarah, and I live in Robesonia, Pennsylvania. We have 2 sons Kyle and Kurt. Kyle, his wife Jen, and son Hudson live near Gettysburg. Kurt and his son, Noah, live in Robesonia. Sarah's parents, Clyde and Dorothy Brubaker, also reside in Robesonia.

Give us a brief description of your Hampshire Flock

We have approximately 40 Hampshire brood ewes with an emphasis on breed type, structural soundness and productivity. Our concentration is on wether type Hampshires for many reasons.

Why did you choose to include registered Hampshries in your sheep operation?

Sarah and I met at NAILE where she was showing her Hampshires in the junior show. Her parents, Clyde and Dorothy Brubaker, started their Hampshire flock in 1959. I also had a small flock of Hampshires when we met and the rest is history.

What advice do you have for people starting out in the sheep business?

Pick the type / kind of Hampshire you want to raise and stick with it. Don't compromise your standards when buying your stud buck.Be patient.

What are one or two items that you have found to be critical for the success of your sheep operation?

A good wife
 Proper nutrition
 Keep breed type
 Did I mention... a good wife?

Who are some people that you credit for your success with Hampshires?

My in-laws - Clyde and Dorothy Brubaker Other lifetime friends and Hampshire breeders including Dan & Linda Schlichter

What is your favorite sports team?

I really don't have a favorite team but inspirational leaders who play or coach. These mentors help develop and inspire other team members and players.

Coach Mike Kryzewski – Duke University basketball coach
 Peyton Manning – former Quarterback

What is your favorite food?

Anything sweet. What is the top item on your bucket fist?

I don't have a bucket list. Every new experience is a blessing.

What is the favorite place you have visited?

I really don't have a favorite place but Sarah and I do enjoy traveling. We love to visit other sheep breeders and learn about their flocks and life outside raising sheep. Some of our travel occurs while judging various shows as we try and plan other stops along the way. I guess you'd have to say that our favorite place is the annual trip to NAILE where we met.

We will be going to Sedalia in Junel

Thanks to Tor, Steve, Mindy and crew.

HAMPSHIRE FUTURITY

The Hampshire Futurity Program is undergoing some changes and improvements. Please look for the revised rules on the Hampshire website (www.hampshire.org) in early March 2018. The American Hampshire Board of Directors continues to look at the Futurity Program, seeking ways to make changes and improvements. We would like to encourage our youth members to consider buying Futurity nominated ewe lambs at the various public and private sales. Ewe lambs may also be purchased from private breeders as long as they submit a nomination form and pay the 25.00$/head nomination fee. For any questions on how the Futurity program works please contact your director or the American Hampshire Sheep Association office. $4,000.00 was paid to Junior Hampshire Members in 2017!

FROM AJHSA PRESIDENT

Some people say "the future is now", which may be true when it comes to the American Junior Hampshire Sheep Association.

The AJHSA board members met for the first time via conference call on October 29th to discuss ideas for the upcoming year and Louisville. While in Louisville, AJHSA board members met on November 10th and finalized plans for the remaining week. Officers were elected and include: Danielle Houghtaling-SD (President), Jenna Sullivan-CT (Vice President), Morgan Hauger-IN (Secretary/ Treasurer), Zach Lyman-MA, Kaylan Risacher-MN, Faith Houghtaling-SD, Amanda King-CA, and Campbell Coyle-KY. The ambassadors are led by Jeff Ebert and Katelyn Parsons. The Stars of Louisville sale, followed by a junior Hampshire member social gathering, was held the evening of November 11th. The junior board members were able to sell raffle tickets during the sale for a Heineger clipper that was donated by Heiniger. After the sale, all junior Hampshire members were invited to have pizza, make promotional posters for the Hampshire breed, and engage in a scavenger hunt. A senior Hampshire board meeting was held on November 12th and was attended by Danielle Houghtaling, Faith Houghtaling, and Amanda King to represent the junior board members.

The junior Hampshire show in Louisville on Saturday, November 11th, was well attended and was a quality set throughout. Several junior members were also able to stay for the open-class Hampshire show on Monday, the 13th. As the weekend wound down, we were all very pleased with the outcome of NAILE.

The AJHSA board members are currently planning for summer shows and activities that can be executed regionally or nationally. We hope to increase membership involvement and possibly even membership itself for juniors within the Hampshire breed. The best is yet to come for this association!

> Respectfully Yours, Danielle Houghtaling AJHSA President
